

Biographies

Gavin Rogers is an artist, lecturer and community arts practitioner. He has particular interest in how the city and art making can improve people's aspiration and wellbeing. He enjoys working in the mediums of sculpture, conversation, walking, video and actively takes part in arts based conferences, exhibitions and events.

Laura Onions is an artist and educator based in the West Midlands, teaching Fine Art at the University of Wolverhampton. Her research interests include, community engaged practice and feminist approaches to education, exploring diffractive methodologies and notational spaces for painting, teaching and writing.